

Invitation for “Safety of personal data processing” Workshop
in the framework of
35th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners in Warsaw

Polish Confederation Lewiatan and Microsoft Poland would like to invite you to a workshop and discussion of a range of experts about several aspects of safety of personal data processing. This workshop will be organized as a side event to the 35th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners, that will take place on 23rd – 26th September in Warsaw. We are glad to inform that Polish Data Protection Commissioner already confirmed his participation and amongst other invited DPAs are Commissioners from France, Germany, Ireland, USA and Luxembourg. We are also inviting a wide range of experts, participants and decision makers in the recent debate on EU draft regulation on personal data protection, who represent Polish Government, EU Parliament, EU Commission, NGOs, academics and business. Amongst those who confirmed participation in our experts’ round table are:

- Wojciech Wiewiórowski – Inspector General for Personal Data Protection, Poland
- Rafał Trzaskowski – Member of European Parliament, Poland
- Gérard Lommel - President of the Commission nationale pour la protection des données of Luxembourg
- Steve Wood - Head of Policy Delivery, Information Commissioner’s Office, UK
- Maureen K. Ohlhausen – Commissioner, U.S. Federal Trade Commission
- Jean Gonie - Director of Privacy, EMEA Policy, Microsoft
- Katherine Tassi - Head of Data Protection at Facebook Ireland
- Marisa Jimenez – European Privacy Policy Officer ,Google
- Christina Petres - Chief Privacy Officer IBM World Wide
- Agnieszka Marzec – Credit Information Bureau, Poland
- Jędrzej Niklas – Panoptykon, Poland

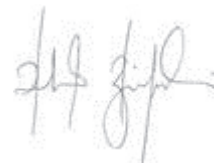

Workshop conclusions will be delivered to EU and Member States legislators in order to help in further debates and legislative processes regarding above mentioned regulation.

We are looking forward to meet you at the workshop.
Sincerely yours

Henryka Bochniarz
President of Lewiatan Confederation

Ronald Binkfski
General Director Microsoft Poland

Invitation for “Safety of personal data processing” Workshop
in the framework of
35th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners in Warsaw

Event Details:

Workshop format: Broad panel discussion with audience participation

Date: 24 September 2013, 15.00-18.00

Venue: Warsaw, Hilton Hotel, room Warsaw Hall II

This side event is non-paid and open for external audience as well as for all Privacy Conference participants. In order to confirm your attendance, please send an e-mail RSVP to the following address a-agchru@microsoft.com

Discussion Topics:

Measures to protect personal data: anonymous and pseudonymised data, others?

When can pseudonymisation be used? Is pseudonymised data still personal data?

How should data protection rules apply to pseudonymised data?

Concerns related to pseudonymisation. What personal data can be pseudonymised?

Which sectors can use pseudonymisation?

Security of personal data in the cloud and as part of Big Data

Security methods and mechanisms. Is data in the cloud and “big data” personal data?

Risk based approach

Risks related to data processing. How to adopt proportionate measures to prevent and mitigate risks?

Actual and exaggerated risks. How to assess risk- big companies and SMEs perspective.

Workshop Agenda:

15.00 – 15.30 Opening and Key Notes

Minister Wojciech Wiewiórowski – Polish Inspector General for Personal Data Protection

Jean Gonie – EMEA Privacy Policy Director, Microsoft

Jakub Wojnarowski – Deputy General Director of Lewiatan Confederation

15.30 – 17.30 Broad Panel Discussion facilitated by Magdalena Piech from Polish Confederation
Lewiatan and Piotr Marczuk from Microsoft Poland

Anonymisation, pseudonymisation

Data in the cloud and big data

Risk based approach

17.30 – 18.00 Summary and Modest Reception

Registration:

In order to register, please send an e-mail RSVP to the following address by September 16th - a-agchru@microsoft.com

Conference website: <https://privacyconference2013.org/>